Monthly Board Meeting Minutes was made by Laura Ladu; seconded by Judy Calogero; Ashely Walden recused due to her absence; motion carried unanimously among remaining voting members.

Board Discussion/Recommendations: EDC President Jim Siplon reported on the progress of the CONNECTALL Grant from ESD. There were updates on the Advisory Committee structure and formalization. Mr. Siplon shared that there is a current list of prospects with several individuals already showing interest. The Committee will be representative of various industries, experience, and geographic representation. Mr. Siplon continued to address the need to grow the EDC community, with Board assistance, to add additional engagement with businesses in the broader area to support the regional economy prompting discussion about possible partnerships and collaboration outside the county.

President/Staff Report: EDC Vice President John Wheatly reviewed recent business activity, showing consistent growth in business engagement including microbusinesses. There was discussion about adding housing capacity to the area in order to meet current and future demands including the proposal to the City regarding Tech Meadows. Mr. Siplon proposed a public facing document and possible event to share the story of recent and future industrial lot sales and industry growth with the community. He provided updates on the sale of two Queensbury Industrial Park lots, an upcoming convening of the hospitality industry, and provided a brief update on the childcare effort. EDC Coordinator Eric Rosenfield discussed the framework and purpose of bi-weekly staff meetings and walked the Board through a one-pager meant to provide them context for having conversations with new EDC members.
